

Stellemploy

CHEF-ASSISTANT SKILLS TRAINING PROGRAMME

Stellemploy will train 12 unemployed young people in Food Production and Cooking Skills over a period of eight weeks at the Stellemploy Training Centre. We plan to start with the training programme on 8 May 2023.

What does the training include?

This course is internationally accredited with the Highfield Qualifications and covers the following modules: Occupational Health and Safety; Knife Skills; Hospitality and Catering Principles.

What are the application criteria?

- Valid South African ID
- Unemployed
- Between the ages of 18 – 35 years
- Minimum qualification Grade 11 (able to read and speak English)
- Proof of residency in Stellenbosch Municipal Area

What does it include?

Includes all training, training materials, refreshments and transport from Stellemploy's office in Stellenbosch to Stellemploy Training Centre and back (stipends will not be paid).

How do you contact us to make an application appointment?

- Telephone: 021 8866993 (office number)
- Visit Stellemploy's Office: Ou Lückhoff Skool (Banhoek Road, next to Babin Crèche)
- WhatsApp: 076 179 3854

Closing date for application:

26 April 2023 at 12:00